Indigo glow fills the room,
And I must leave much too soon;
Another day, another hour,
Is all I ask to be ours.

Is it too much to ask,
That you be with me now?
It really seems to be so,
For this is all we're allowed.

I want you here. I need you here;
You are my love. You are my life;
We're not together. Why can't we be together?
What we go through for love.

Cars and diamond rings,
You may want, but don't need from me;
My presence is all you ask,
But all you get is a contrast.

Our hearts are already one;
Our souls are close behind;
Only a few months more,
And to you I will bind.

I want you here. I need you here;
You are my love. You are my life;
We're not together. Why can't we be together?
What we go through for love.

I'll always be with you,
No matter how far apart we are;
I know it's a one-way ticket,
That only goes so far and...

I hope the indigo stays;
I hope it never fades;
This can't be only a phase;
There's only one thing that should change because...

I want you here. I need you here;
You are my love. You are my life;

We're not together. Why can't we be together?
Why are we so far apart?
I need to be closer to you.
How much longer do I have to wait,
To be with you?

I want you here. I need you here;
You are my love. You are my life;
We're not together. Why can't we be together?
Why can't we?

I want you here. I need you here;
You are my love. You are my life;
We're not together. Why can't we be together?
What we go through for love.
What we go through for love.
What we go through...
