So unconditional, my love you.
All heart and faith, angel you're so true.
Pure and white. It blend like stains,
Beside your light, that reveals my pain.
Never satisfied, but who dares to be,
Happy, well it seems not me.
Though I used to be the one,
Who struggled for this moment to come.
I've always been the one who cries
For love beyond life.
Grandma's sight in black coffee
Or read my palm, just say that I'll be happy
Wedding-dress in red, someone like you
And your Kurdish princess
Swears you to be true.
Don't you know I'm usually the one
Who struggle for this moment to come
Don't you know it is in my blood to cry,
For love beyond this life.
