No one is leaving here
Not until we get this clear
Im tired of all your accusations
Im tired of all this pain
Loosing all that I hold dear
I demand, that you sit down and hear.
You tell me that Im untrue
That Im breaking your heart in two
Youve had enough of my excuses
You say youre getting out
But I havent had my say
It wont hurt you to wait one more day
See I dont have your strength anymore
I dont feel that strong anymore
I dont have your strength anymore
Cant hold back my tears anymore
No one loves you as I
But my tears are silent and dry
Through all my counting downs
Plus and minus was never none
And now you want to share your precious time
Though it hurts me, I still think we should try
But I dont have you strength anymore
Cant even feel tour pain anymore
I dont feel that strong anymore
Cant hold back my tears anymore
No one is leaving now
Not until weve worked this out
