Memories of long ago
are slowly coming back to me.
The bright once was buried underneath the darkness Thought I was born to witness my own heartless destiny, Til I discovered love and so I left the loveless and their kingdom,
And now its
You and I
You and I,
no more running,
no more chasing shadows.
just you and I
Im done with sadness,
and Im so glad its over.
This little girl grew up and became a woman
At first I was afraid, but now Im glad I got to knew her Because the girl kissed frogs and the lady met a man and thats why I am So glad its
Memories of long ago
are slowly coming back to me
