Swallow my pride

When I was young my heart could feel
All the love surrounding me
I could look into your eye
Without holding my head high
Holding my head up so highÂ...

Years came and years they went
While I was waiting for the heaven-sent
Now IÂ'm dancing all alone
Like a king on his throne
No one to take me back homeÂ...

Swallow my pride
Release everything I feel inside
Touch my world with eager lips one more time
Swallow my pain
And make me believe in love again
Make me believe in love againÂ...

Too proud to stop this show
Another night, another blow
Everytime you look in my eye
I keep holding my head high
Holding my head up so highÂ...

Swallow my pride
Release everything I feel inside
Touch my world with eager lips one more time

Swallow my pain
And make me believe in love again
Make me believe in love againÂ...
