My Friends don't know
How to get you to
Like me as much as
I like you

So I called you
And asked you why
And you said you
Liked another guy

Oh that's great
That's just fine
I'll lie in my room
To pass the time

I've given up
Trying to care
And I've given up
Trying to share

I like you so much
I'm lost in your smile
The list of good things
Could go on for miles

Why won't you go
Out with me
Is there something wrong
With what you see?

Your eyes are so beautiful
Your hair is so long
I know that this
Is where I belong

Give me a chance
I'll change for you
Please think it over
I just want you to like me too
