Verse 1

You be dripping off my lips Like chocolate covered cherries
And the way you swing those hips Like mixed Berry Jelly You be melting in my mouth cause you melting in my hand
Oh girl let me try to tell you how I feel Oh girl strange love but this is what it is

Chorus

I wish that you were candy. wrap you with my body
Girl I'll take my time to savor your flavor. I wish that you were candy. I'd save some for later. Nothing would taste better then you to me.

Verse 2

I've got a sweet tooth for you Will you help me fill it?
Like a big bag of skittles girl,
I want to dive in it
You can be my lollipop; I can be your candy cane
Oh girl sweeter than a glass of lemonade
Oh girl and to let you go to waste would be a shame

Chorus

I wish that you were candy. wrap you with my body
were candy. I'd save some for later. Nothing would
taste
better then you to me.

Brige

To me you are the candy, girl you come in handy you satisfy your man and I love, I love it tell me what you're made of
And I can pick a bunch of it up, So we'll never run out, run out

Chorus

I wish that you were candy. wrap you with my body

were candy. I'd save some for later. Nothing would
taste
better than you to me.

I wish that you were candy. wrap you with my body
were candy. I'd save some for later. Nothing would
taste
better than you to me.

Vamp

Oh girl let me try to tell you how I feel Oh girl Strange love but this is what it is
Oh girl sweeter than a glass of lemonade
Oh girl And to let you go to waste would be a shame

Chorus

I wish that you were candy. wrap you with my body
were candy. I'd save some for later. Nothing would
taste
better than you to me.

I wish that you were candy. wrap you with my body
were candy. I'd save some for later. Nothing would
taste
better than you to me.

mmmmmm Candy candy candy ...take me out of this candy store
