Don't worry, baby; sometimes, things change
Nothin' we can do about it now, no way
This doesn't come easy, but that's just life
We can't keep pretendin' everything's all right

We told each other it was love before
The simple truth is it just ain't no more
The bells stopped ringin', the music won't play
The crazy little feeling is fadin' away

Like snowflakes when the weather warms up
Like leaves on the trees when the autumn comes
Like the dogwood blossoms in the late spring rain
Like disappearing bubbles in a glass of champagne

Like a red kite lost in the blue sky wind
I don't know where the good times went
It ain't nothin' we ever said or ever did wrong
It's just love done gone

I don't regret a single thing that we did
Any time together we ever spent
I wouldn't change a thing, baby no
Sometimes, we gotta just go with the flow

Like snowflakes when the weather warms up
Like leaves on the trees when the autumn comes
Like the dogwood blossoms in the late spring rain
All the disappearing bubbles in a glass of champagne

Like a money in a slot machine
Don't know what happened to you and me
It ain't nothin' we ever said or ever did wrong
It's just love done gone

It's just love done gone
It's just love done gone
