Do you remember where you were on that day?
A day of life sentences and x-rays
My name was on that birthday cake

[Chinga]

Your mother, your father, your brother and the thing
under the covers

Your lover, the others, the leeches, and the serpents and the suckers

your mother, your father, the babies, and the nurses and the doctors

Your lover, the others, the waiting room, the gurney and the druggers

under the covers

Your lover, the others, the leeches and serpents and the suckers

Your mother, your father, the comas and the way the spirits hover

Your lover, the others, I thought I wasnt smart enough to suffer

Kiss me goodnight[x4]

Dreaming white satin

Kiss me goodnight [x3]

Freedom, freedom, tying your legs down

Freedom, freedom, fucking your brains out

Freedom, freedom, blowing the candle out

Freedom, freedom, waving to the crowd

And I hate long goodbyes anyway. . .
