Now who's the fool?

Strip it off
And scale the wall
I am the mask
That talks inside the concrete flesh

I am the king
Now tell me nothing
I am the fool for a day

Concrete playground
Hides the valley
Make me the king
So I can strip it off

Who is fool?
Who is the fool today?

Friend? A new idea
From your stagnant mind
And you must always
Fall before the clown

[Incomprehensible]
I can beat you
I can cheat you
I can be you
