Well I never thought that I'd be where I'm at
At this point in my life looking back My old heart's been broken more than I can count
And my plans aren't going like I've worked 'em out

I think I just might spend the day looking up at the clouds above
Laying around and contemplate, life and love and the meaning of

Well I posed my questions and got no reply Maybe God's just saying why ask why And I think how boring this old life would be if we had the answers to everything

I think I just might spend the day looking up at the
Laying around and contemplate, life and love and the meaning of

That's the beauty of it
If I don't solve nothing
I can try again
Another day is coming I should be on to something really good by then

I think I might just stay up late gazing up at the stars above
Laying around and contemplate, life and love and the meaning of

Laying around and contemplate life and love and the meaning of
