"Walk On"

You're a modern day miracle
Anything but a typical girl
Mona Lisa on a sidewalk stand
Superstar in a common man world
Nothing's been so beautiful

I wanna stop and ask your name
Take a picture of your pretty face
Shout to heaven, steal a kiss
Leave the world at your throne

I wanna beg you to be mine
For the rest of both our lives
But instead I catch my breath
Shake my head, and I walk on

I know I've seen you somewhere before
In my mind behind door number 3
You're a pray, you're a gift from God
But there's a bridge I cannot cross
It seems you're distant dream
I will never hold you

I wanna stop and ask your name
Take a picture of your pretty face
Shout to heaven, steal a kiss
Leave the world at your throne

I wanna beg you to be mine
For the rest of both our lives
But instead I catch my breath
Shake my head, and I walk on

I put one foot in front of another, I walk on Knowing there will never be another

I wanna stop and ask your name
Take a picture of your pretty face
Shot to heaven, steal a kiss
Leave the world at your throne

I wanna beg you to be mine

For the rest of both our lives
But instead I catch my breath
Shake my head, and I walk on

I walk on, I walk on
