It's raining again
everything is so weird I'm sad and alone
because you're not here

I'm asking the wind
to whisper your name
to bring you back
and everything will be the same

All around me
so empty and blue
and this prayer
is all I can do
If you could know
how much we miss you
you would come back from there and forever stay

I'm rising hands
up to the heaven
asking dear Lord
to bring you back to me
So I can sing you our song after school (like I used to do)
on our way back home
