holding a pickle
it reads my mind entrancing crunching sound should i be kind and spare that pickle what kind of love will i find i can't eat alone

if he eats you you'll be gone what will i do

it's never been this hard the feeling taunts me now just when you means you come on pick up the phone can't stand to be alone

i chewed you up inside
i hope you know i tried

they all pointed at me they all know i'm happy they don't like the good things (can't stand to be alone)
chewing and waving
come on make a new song (i chewed you up inside)
conscience taunting me now what's wrong with liking good things
