Every morning came
I don't like that you can hide in
We expect the same but I've no one to confide in and I want you to be with us and in time there's no forgiveness and the plan was set in stone long ago there's never not a time not to know

Can I run, but you'll be there disappear it's never fair it's like a stare
when I call to tell you no every action going slow can I whisper all alone can I find it far from home there's a time to make you move all at once the time flew

and the plan was set in stone long ago

when I call to tell you no
can I whisper all alone
can I find it far from home there's a time will make you move

Hey me watch the corners, watch me 'cause I know what you done hey me don't you know watch me 'cause I'm all alone
