Sunshine lady come through my window sunshine lady come through my door I feel you swaying, playing and I can hear you saying everyday babe I love you more

You knew there was a time I was so low I had to look up at the street
I was just a shell of a man walking round
I couldn't get up on my own two feet

But then, yeah, one day my whole world changed you came into my life you turned the grey clouds babe into the sunny light now I'm singing down the street of life

Sunshine sunshine sunshine lady sunshine lady baby come through my door I feel you swaying, playing little girl I can hear you saying
everyday babe I love you more

(SCAT SINGING)

Oh sunshine lady come through my window sunshine lady little girl come through my door I feel you swaying, see you playing little girl I can hear you saying
everyday babe I love you more

You know and here's another day, here's another day babe
Here's another day I love you more.
