ALWAYS SOMETHING THERE TO REMIND ME
(Hal David/Burt Bacharach)
DIONNE WARWICK

I walk along the city streets
you used to walk along with me, and every step I take recalls how much love, we used to be.

Oh, how can I forget you
when there is always something there to remind me
always something there to remind me.

I was born to love you, and I will never be free
you'll always be a part of me.

When shadows fall, I pass a small cafe where we would dance at night and I can't help recalling how it felt to kiss and hold you tight.

Oh, how can I forget you
when there is always something there to remind me
always something there to remind me.

I was born to love you, and I will never be free
you'll always be a part of me.

If you should find you miss the sweet and tender love we used to share just go back to the places where we used to go, and I'll be there.

Oh, how can I forget you
when there is always something there to remind me
always something there to remind me.

I was born to love you, and I will never be free when there is, when there is
when there is always something there to remind me ...
