I fall in love, and I get hurt
When bad luck hits, I get it first
To try again seems useless now
I'll get hurt again, anyhow
Cause I always get caught in the rain
It seems my heart stays in pain
I always get caught in the rain
It seems my heart stays in pain
Sunny day (a sunny day), life's so gay
Then suddenly (suddenly) it goes away
Without a warning, lightning strikes
I'm heading for another lonely night
I always get caught in the rain
It seems my heart stays in pain
I always get caught in the rain
It seems my heart stays in pain
[instrumental break]
I always get caught in the rain
It seems my heart stays in pain
I always get caught in the rain
It seems my heart stays in pain
