Who is gonna love me,? Not you,
You will be gone.
And here I'll stay, all alone and
I'll just waste away,
Wondering who is gonna hold me
And keep me warm when I'm cold.
Who will I wake up for
Through all those lonely years?
No one to wake up for but
Sleep won't come to end these tears.

And who is gonna kiss me if you
Walk out the door?
There'll be no one new: not for me
'Cause my whole life, is you.
Darling, if you dont wanna love me
There's just no use hanging on
For without your love
Everything is wrong.

Oh, but sleep won't come to end these tears.
And who is gonna kiss me if you
Walk out the door?
There'll be no one new, not for me 'cause
My whole life is you.
Darling, if you don't wanna love me
There's just no use in hangin' on
For without your love
Everything is wrong,
For me.
