I went by last night to pick up my things
Oh boy, ooh boy
Lately, our songs had too many words to sing
Oh boy, ooh boy

It took all the strength from my knees to walk up the steps
Oh boy
It took all the courage I had to knock on the door
Oh boy

My heart was racing, the door opened so slow
I should've run, but how could I go?
All she had on was the radio, boy
Ooh boy, oh boy, ooh boy

Without a word, she called me in
Oh boy, ooh boy
Just one little step for me a chasm to span
Oh boy, ooh boy

We started dancing, God, I couldn't believe how she felt
Oh boy
Rollin' and tumblin', fumblin' for my buttons and belt
Oh boy

The music was playin' so soft and low
I should've run, but how could I go?
All she had on was the radio, boy
Ooh boy, oh boy, ooh boy

Kisses like cherries put wings on my pain
Oh boy, ooh boy
Love coming down like sunshine on sugar cane
Oh boy, ooh boy

It took all the strength from my knees to walk up the steps
(On three)
It took all the courage I had to knock on the door
Oh boy

My heart was racing, the door opened so slow
I should have run but how could I go?
All she had on was the radio, boy
Ooh boy, oh boy, ooh boy

Radio, boy, ooh boy, radio, boy, ooh boy
Oh boy, ooh boy, oh boy, ooh boy
Oh boy, ooh boy, oh boy, ooh boy, radio
Ooh boy, oh boy, ooh boy, like I been here too long
