I fall in love and I get hurt
When bad luck hits I get it first
To try again seems useless now
I'll get hurt again anyhow

'Cause I always get caught in the rain
It seems my heart stays in pain
I always get caught in the rain
It seems my heart stays in pain

A sunny day, life's so gay
Then suddenly it goes away
Without a warning, lightning strikes
I'm heading for another lonely night

I always get caught in the rain
It seems my heart stays in pain
I always get caught in the rain
It seems my heart stays in pain

La la la la
La la la la
La la la la la
Caught in the rain

I always get caught in the rain
It seems my heart stays in pain
I always get caught in the rain
It seems my heart stays in pain

I always get caught in the rain
It seems my heart stays in pain
