

Dionysos "Childs Eyes"

Life is free
Just like you and me
Inside Lies the key
To eternity

An ocean of emotion to breath in the air.
The childs eyes did stare at love
When all else false today, remembers the way
Tomorrow can be saved with love.

Have you forgotten your soul when it was brought in Have you forgotten the lines they have you locked in Can you remember yourself you know you were torn
Can you remember yourself before you were born

Life it free
Leaves in the breeze
The magic in your eye
Beauty cannot lie
Can you remember the last time you departed
Can you remember where you left off and where you started
Have you forgotten the way that it was
What it always has been and will be for eternity

An ocean of emotion is free in the air.
The childs eyes did stare at love
When all else false today, will remember the way
Tomorrow can be saved with love.
