

Dionysos "Everyday"

Visit "Everyday" on MotoLyrics.com

I have, nothing I have to do today.
So ill just travel outside my head and play, all day.
Ill turn my thoughts into birds, and some will fly away.
They make nests and they lay eggs everyday,
everyday.

Everyday, oh Everyday,
Everyday
Everyday, oh Everyday,

(Guitar Solo)

I have, nothing I have to fear today.
Cause what I do will only come back to me ten times that way, and that's ok yea that's ok.
Ill turn my thoughts into stampeding horses headed
our way, our way.
They came from the river; they'll all begin to say,
they'll say yeah.

Everyday, oh Everyday,
Everyday
Everyday, oh Everyday,
Everyday
Everyday, oh Everyday,
Everyday, today is a new day,
Everyday
Oh Everyday, Everyday
