

Dir En Grey "Dead Tree"

Visit "Dead Tree" on MotoLyrics.com

Here is some water for the dead tree... I see your reflection in the dirty water...

Dreams and aspirations Your ideals in the big sky
Passionate Red

The one I loved so much...

Ideals being sweeter then candy are just ideals

Noone wants the present

Point your finger Goodbye

I feel love on my forehead at gun point
Even the child with the red coat swallows her tears as she faces reality

Why? Why? Over and Over
It will never heal
Why? Why? Over and Over
My dead heart...

Love, tenderness, freedom and peace.
