These eyes opened up and understood everything
Our battle What do you feel about this fist that shakes
in anger?

Climb over that wall

The good and the bad have all been rooted in us

Destruction Despair

All visible things are in vain

No turning back

A boon or a bane

Every night, death opens its mouth, tangles its tongue and comes for me

No turning back

Salute the monkey

Salute the monkey

The desires to combine with god

Sex with a Humanoid

Undesired? Is it not love?

FOREVER ABANDONED

If there're no doubts and nothing to lose, to the freedom of being born...

Our battle What do you feel about this fist that shakes
in anger?

Climb over that wall

Justice for dying

What's the one that can't turn back?

I'm tired of all the excuses

You notice it only when the flesh gets piled up on the cart and when all sides get blocked

The ceremonial halls are a taste of sweet honey right?

Watching it thru the glass window, you never look away

Auschwitz goes crazy in silence

I'll give you god

Salute the monkey

Salute the monkey

The desires to combine with god

Sex with a Humanoid

Undesired? Is it not love?

If there's not a single moment to be at least at having no doubts and nothing to lose, to the freedom of being born

Then the reality we must face will turn everything, even dreams into rust

Solution and tomorrow, that's rubbish

Devil In A Midnight Mass

These eyes opened up and understood everything

Our battle what do you think about this fist that shakes
in anger ?
