Soak it in dirt and wash it off
You wear my mask, does that make you GOD?

DEAD BORN

I will feel pity for you

666

All you have is just a façade

Everyone laughs at you behind your back

Who looks at you?

666

You turn your head and call this freedom?

You won't become SID tomorrow

He doesn't have "it" on his chest

Temptation just ate him up, and you call this a dead body?

Look at it closely, they're all just scarred up mannequins

The lullaby that's suppose to make you sleep

I can't hear it, Can't hear it, Can't hear it

You crawling on your elbows looked so artistic

Those are the kiku flowers placed for the accident, that we're suppose to forget in a timely manner

Can't sleep, Can't sleep

The deep sin lies with MONA LISA

DEAD BORN

I will feel pity for you

666

All you have is just a façade

Everyone laughs at you behind your back

Who looks at you?
