"Possesion"

one of my biggest fears is it i can't touch it but i can feel it it does not have a taste or smell but i can feel it in my spirit it is deep inside of me it makes me fear my memory one day i'll live peacefully without the fear of it it is some thing i can't see but it will never posses me it always trys to take control and i can feel it in my spirit chorus

it keeps running through my mind i have to fight it time and time and time and time and time and time again

the more i understand about it the less my world revolves around it then i can just live out my life without the fear of it
