I instantly knew when I saw you
You and I would be forever
Hearts never apart
True from the start
To each other and together
There's nothing we can't do
And until the end of time
If you tell me you'll be mine

I'm never gonna spend another night
Without you in my dreams for the rest of my life
I'm gonna reach out to you honestly and try
To give you what you need with all of my might
'Cause nothing has ever felt
So real and so right
So I'm gonna never spend another night
Without you in my dreams

'Cause you are so in my heart
Even alone in the dark
I can feel the light of our love shining
We are so meant to be
That we are definitely
Destiny and there's no denying
That I love you, though it's so cliché
There's nothing else to say

But I'm never gonna spend another night
Without you in my dreams for the rest of my life
I'm gonna reach out to you honestly and try
To give you what you need with all of my might
'Cause nothing has ever felt
So real and so right
So I'm never gonna, never gonna, never gonna spend another night
Without you in my dreams
I'm never gonna spend another night
