"Deaf Dumb & Male"

You think because I'm women I'm at your beck and call you try to degrade me humiliate and ridicule. Your cat calls fall on deaf ears, you do not compliment I won't be at your mercy, this body's not for rent. Deaf dumb & male in society. Deaf dumb & male won't you listen to me. Deaf dumb & male it's time for change. Deaf dumb & male 'cause things can't stay the same. You macho men don't thrill me, the approach you use is stale will you never learn I am strong I am female. We have come from out the kitchen the chains we've left behind We don't need your permission do you think we're blind? To boldly go where few men have rarely gone before stand alone stand apart from your friends you must ignore. But you do not surprise me, this society feeds you crap but when you have a daughter it'll end up in your lap. You can change this system by starting with yourself and if you change the rules the game will change itself.
