I don't work tomorrow
You could spare an hour of your time
And I don't mind to travel
We can go to your place or to mine

'Cause it's been a long week
I haven't got much sleep
And I think that we could use some time

Baby change the water, add some ice
We change the water, add some ice

Forget about your sorrow
Worrying is just a waste of time
You'll pick up tomorrow whatever you left off
Just let the world wait awhile

'Cause you got a good job
And you're working real hard
I think you need to ease your mind

Why don't we change the water, add some ice
(Change the water, add some ice)
Let's just change the water, add some ice
(Change the water)

It's always nice, put on a movie
Talk about life and just get high
You know you're such a good friend
And it'd be a good end to the night
But if we do it, let's do it right

Change the water, add some ice
Why don't we change the water, add some ice
Why don't we change the water
You're such a good friend, it'd be a good end to our night

Change the water, change
Just change the water, change
Let's change the water, add some
Just add some ice, just add some ice

Change the water, add some ice
Change the water, add some ice, oh
