I know I tell you all the time
It's always on my mind
So understand when I
Try to find the words to say
Don't want to be cliché
A cheesy serenade

Don't you know you've been
The only thing that matters to me
Don't you know you've been
The only one who truly believes

Don't let me down
I'm officially in love with you now
I got everything to lose
Times they may change
But if you would be my steady baby

I promise I'll do right by you
Right by you

People think they understand
But they don't stand a chance
They couldn't if they tried
You're neurotic just like me
Making sure I eat
You barely save a dime

Don't you know I've been
Alone with the exception of you
And if anything, that's true

[Chorus]

Officially in love
I'm officially in love
