I'd scream away all of your slams
I'd wipe away all of your chases
I'd chase away all of your wipes
I'd pain away all of your blocks
I'd flare away all of your chases
I'd pain away all of your scoops
I was the stupid one who held your hands for 50 million years in 30 seconds
Go stick an Oreo in your ear
I've been peeing literally nonstop for 30 minutes
I can't take a deep breath without breaking a rib
The ambulance is stuck to my head
I'd jump away all of your stitches
I'd fart away all of your fits
I'd burp away all of your screams
I'd scream away all of your scrandles
I'd parker away all of your quicks
I'd stitch away all of your jumps
I'd scratch away all of your eyeballs
I'd dream away all of your thoughts
I'd scratch away all of your shit
