At first it seemed as if his dreams had all come true
And losing his heart was such an easy thing to do
He fell in love so deep with magic that they had
But when he realized he couldn't hold her
It finally drove him mad
Now he don't know when he lost her
He don't know that she's not there
And he don't know that it's over
Best of all he don't know that she don't care
Now he shows her old photograph to each new friend he finds

The writing on the back has long since faded out with time
But his heart remembers every word and his eyes still see the love
And in his mind he's still the one that she is dreamin' of
Now he don't know when he lost her
He don't know that she's not there
And he don't know that it's over
