She knows that I
I'm never ever gonna run away
So close your eyes
'Cause words only get in the way

Maybe you oughta love me
Maybe you oughta leave
Maybe you oughta run to him
Or stay right here with me

And now you stare at me with a crooked smile
Say you're thinking about denial
And then when we just start living'
Here for to here I am
For heart with a different name
Ashamed that I felt the same
Deal with the pain and still remain
So hope for a change

Like a welcome summer rain
Comes with perfect timing
She said love needs pressure
Pressure turns to diamonds

Like a welcome summer rain
That comes with perfect timing
Love needs pressure
Well pressure makes diamonds

She knows that I
Am never ever gonna run away
She knows that I
I'm crazy, but I'm not insane

She knows that I
Mean every word that I say
So close you eyes
'Cause words only get in the way

Well now I've got this lovin' feelin' up inside of my soul
It's like every step I take I feel it callin' me home
I'm put in situations just so hard for me to stay true

But it's so easy for me 'cause I keep thinkin' of you

And my love, it keeps me knowin' everything will be fine

And your love, it keeps me goin' when I'm losin' my mind

It's your love that keeps me goin' when I'm sleepin' alone

It's your love that keeps me strong
I can't wait to get home

She's like a welcome summer rain
Comes with perfect timing
She said love needs pressure
Pressure turns to diamonds

Like a welcome summer rain
Comes with perfect timing
Love needs pressure
Well pressure makes diamonds

She knows that I
I'm never ever gonna run away
She knows that I
I'm crazy but I'm not insane
She knows that I
Mean every word that I say
So close your eyes
'Cause words only get in the way

Go to him and say
I'm gone
You never thought I could go
I'm gone.
You never loved me so
I'm gone
You never thought I could go
I'm gone
I'm gone

She knows that I
I'm never ever gonna run away
She knows that I
I'm crazy, but I'm not insane
She knows that I
Mean every word that I say
So close your eyes
'Cause words only get in the way

I'm gone
