An' I woke up in the strangest dream
To a world that seems so long, long
Fallen angel spoke with me
With her open wings, she said, "Come on, come on"

An' I can't stop this fever, liberty comes over me
And there's a million ways I've tried
To say these words to you for so long, long
A hundred million stars that shine
But you're the only one that I want, want

Every passin' moment can't you see
There's a million ways tonight

Angel take me by the hand
Help me understand what I've learned, learned
That every woman and every man
Has a precious seed that they burned, burned, burned

An' I can't stop this fever, liberty comes over me
And there's a million ways I've tried
To say these words to you for so long, long
(Come on now)
A hundred million stars that shine
But you're the only one that I want, want
(Come on now)

I can't wait forever, time is runnin' out
An' I can't wait forever, your life is runnin' down
Every passin' moment
Can't you see there's a million ways tonight

Come on now
Come on now
Come on now

There's a million ways I've tried
To say these words to you for so long, long
(Come on now, come on now)
Hundred million stars that shine
But you're the only one that I want, want
(Come on now, come on now)

There's a million ways I've tried
To say these words to you for so long, long
A hundred million stars that shine
You're the only one that I want, want
