4:56)
fix my life
with things i like
see me dance
in your light
last july it was raining hard i was cold i was wet i walked into the bar there you stood with your t-shirt torn and your ripped up jeans what a way to be born and the ice in my glass just like me
melted, like rain rolled over and out to sea and we ran to my truck out of breath, full of luck and there was something different about the way that it felt when we touched going all through me and the look in your eye seemed to say
that was back in 1987
when love was free and life was heaven, it was the coldest day in february we drove down to the cemetary you said it was a fine day for a funeral but i couldn't see through your cool black case of h.i.v.
attacking our entire society condoms become a way of life without it, man
your dick's a knife
believe it, i mean it hearts beating in the hall - laughing at it all loving is the key to the future

nothing is the key to the future now, i'm the ghost in everyone i am your daughter
i am your son
i'm the painter who paints no more your doctor, your lover
the boy next door
that ron ignored and george abandoned i'm the queer and voiceless champion and i live inside you i live inside you
