God gave me this here guitar Pointed to the farthest star and said, "Son You got a long long way to go" I said, "I'm the daughter you never had and I'm really good when I'm bein' bad" and I'm about to cut the strings on this puppet show Now to be a stick of dynamite predicting rain and not a cloud in sight that's who I am and that's what I'll do for you We were goin out the other night and I'm wearin my favorite jeans alright with lots of holes and lots of leg in sight
"How come you're wearing that?" he siad

'cause people are hungry and the people are threads and I'll wear these jeans til everybody's fed Maybe wish, maybe that, maybe this is all the love you can muster up Well I called my friend the other day
He lives in that modern town of L.A.
His answering machine said, leave a message friend
It said, practice random acts of kindness and senseless acts of beauty and put your cliché softly in the end.
