Images of everyone
Of what you see just illusions
Of what we were meant to become
Awakened fire of the Son inside

Everything within me cries out
The phoenix is rising, my heart overflows
Everything within has burned out
The fire is rising, new life has begun

And I'll never forget just who You are
Cut Your name inside of my heart
Touching the flame right where You are
Can You feel the phoenix rising?

Instances of what we've done
That walk to our destination
Of what we know we'll become
Awakened fire of the Son

Everything within me cries out
The phoenix is rising, my heart overflows
Everything within has burned out
The fire is rising, new life has begun

And I'll never forget just who You are
Cut Your name inside of my heart
Touching the flame right where You are
Can You feel the phoenix rising?

Never forget just who You are
Cut Your name inside of my heart
Touching the flame right where You are
Can You feel the phoenix rising?

Everything within me cries out
The phoenix is rising, my heart overflows
Everything within has burned out
The fire is rising, new life has begun

Never forget just who You are
Cut Your name inside of my heart

Touching the flame right where You are
Can You feel the phoenix rising?

Never forget just who You are
Cut Your name inside of my heart
Touching the flame right where You are
Can You feel the phoenix rising?
