"A Factory Of Minds" to the window, to the wall to the ceiling, to the floor ten steps forward, ten steps back two necks, thirty fingers two chests, but one head one day, one night, one week, a thousand years six day journey to a better life a tree, a rock a monument, a factory of minds with a pillow, sheets and blankets i'd go anywhere

"did you mistake what glitters for a diamond ring?"
"have you ever seen explosions that don't make any sound?"
