"Nice Price Rock And Roll"

Visit "Nice Price Rock And Roll" on MotoLyrics.com

I woke up one day to the sound of my own music
I woke up one day to the sight of the same old me
I got rid of nothing but a couple words and obligations (there's a very big sticker, it's red and blue)
now I can do what I want and tell everyone I'm brand new
(think I've seen that sticker, it's on everything you do)
('cos everything you do is nice price)

you keep telling me it's rock'n'roll
but you're selling it for nice price
you keep telling me it's rock'n'roll
it's nice price, nice price what if I say "punk-rock"? would I sound like a hopeless loser?
what if I say "rock'n'roll"? would I sound any cooler?
