We never rat each other out
We hold hands and listen to the police radio
We'll always help each other out
Speak coded language on the telephone

Contemplate a life of crime
We're sharp as knives, sharp as knives
Sharp as knives, sharp as Think it through, yeah, figure it out
A life of crime, a life of crime
A life of crime, a life of crime
A life of crime

Speculate an insurance fraud
The execution and the risk of getting caught
We'd fake I'd die and get 10.000 euros on your bank account
Keep hiding for a while and come back under different names

Contemplate a life of crime
We're sharp as knives, sharp as knives
Sharp as knives, sharp as knives

It's the life of crime

There's a price set on our heads
You hide your face, you hide your face under your hair
We don't hear in years from our friends
You hide your face, you hide your face under your hair
There's a price set on our heads
You hide your face, you hide your face under your hair
We don't hear in years from our friends
You hide your face, you hide your face under your hair

Contemplate a life of crime
We're sharp as knives, sharp as knives
Think it through, figure it out
A life of crime, a life of crime
A life of crime, a life of crime
It's the life of

There's a price set on our heads
You hide your face, you hide your face under your hair
We don't hear in years from our friends
You hide your face, you hide your face under your hair
