"In The End"

In the beginning

It was all so simple then
Dead spirits standing before fate
Necromancing the dead
Romancing the stars
Through gods hands
A covenant was etched in stone
Ten lies embalming life
Aborting future..erasing past

In the end

It was always meant to be
A prophets insanity
Bringing karmic death
1999 the end is closing in
Cause in the hands of man
The world has turned to shit

In the end

The sky comes crashing down..
The earth splits open wide
The cities burn
The oceans flood the land..
No where to turn
The blood seeps through the sand
Everyone dies..
With dollar signs in thier eyes

In the end
Rest in piece
