Have another drink, don't worry it's on the house tonight
You're losing all control and you think it's alright
But can't you feel the waves crashing over?

Pull me under, drown me again
Pull me under, I'm still your friend
Your reckless beauty I promise to defend

You stumble and you fall but somehow you're still graceful
And even when you hide, you'll still be in my side
And if the world would turn a little slower, yeah

Pull me under, drown me again
Pull me under, I'm still your friend
Your reckless beauty I promise to defend
Oh, yeah, woah, reckless beauty

Pull me under, drown me again
Pull me under, I'm still your friend
Your reckless beauty I promise to defend

Pull me under, yeah
Pull me under, yeah
I promise to defend
