You cannot be inside of me
When I know I die for free
I know you hate the way I walk
I know you hate the way I talk

I've lost my soul
I have my mind again

Pain is what I need tonight
Gimme all the vicious delights
I can't control I knock me down
I won't hide the morning sun

I've lost my soul
I have my mind again

I get so high I cannot hide
I say goodbye to [Incomprehensible]
I lost my soul, I shake my mind
I have you gone, I do not cry

You cannot be inside of me
When I know I die for free
I know you hate the way I walk
I know you hate the way I talk

I've lost my soul
I have my mind again

Pain is what I need tonight
Gimme all the vicious delights
I can't control I knock me down
I won't hide the morning sun

I get so high I cannot hide
I say goodbye to [Incomprehensible]
I lost my soul, I shake my mind
I have you gone, I do not cry
