Untie
The hands that bind your mind
And be nice
She put a gun against her ear
Inside
Against a gin and tonic sky
She's a star
She finds a place to lose her pain
Caged as she waits inside
Hate and she wants to die
And she wants, and she wants to live
Deny
The problem never catches light
Rewind
She pours herself some self respect
Caged as she waits inside
Hate and she wants to die
And she wants, and she wants to live

She wants, she wants to live
She wants
She wants, she wants to live
Away from this haze
Away back from this haze
Still she's caged as she waits inside
Hate and she wants to die
And she wants, and she wants to live
She wants to live
Caged as she waits inside
Hate and she wants to die
Get me back from this haze
Get me back from this haze
Get me back from this haze
