A fire grew in the snow,
in the cold,
in the yard
took some time to figure out what it would mean
that maybe i was blinded by a sheen

smelled like me
smelled like you
smelled like the things that we've been into the dare a leap off to sweep to get rid of square disbelief to have tried to have lied to have slipped and get back on your feet we have it all down in your hole dancing with the shadows OF DEATH

Flames grow high, out of sight Young contrue, tainted by An item wrapped in naked curiosity of killed men

the dare a leap and off to sweep we are dancing with the shadows of death

A fire grew in the snow,
in the cold,

hold you in

they hold you in and I keep the sheen in the?
we are dancing with the shadows
