A thousand deaths I've seen, my mind is scarred beyond repair

Don't really care if I survive this life of mental despair

Lies, lies, see the madness in their eyes

Children of the cross, lost on the path of the dead

Undead my savior, from tomb to womb I follow thee

Stigmatized, crucified, I bleed my life unto you

Seeking the source, of the dark I've become

Killing the source of the light I despise Hatred and soul is now one
Hatred and life is now one
