[Music: R. Sennebeck, F. Estby. Lyrics: F. Estby.]

Sick as can be
Twisting out of true
Explaining the feeling as Insanity breaks through
Bringer of murder scenes
Architect of fear
Distorted, deranged
The messages I hear

Welcome to evil
Beyond the confines
Of rape, torture
Unordinary crimes
Spirit robbing firetalking
Story by the blade
Burning for violence
And escalating hate

Journey through a predators head
No fucking rest 'til my enemies lay dead
Silence a screaming wall
Sanity drowning inside of it all
Believing is greatest pain
As fucking twisted as god is insane
Compassion the first sence to die
Magic of murder a god given lie

Repent to your saviour
Become what I create
Through symbolic actions
I'm sealing your fate
Taking lead position
In chain of command
Even Jesus Christ
Will die by my hand
