It's good to see the sun
And feel this place
This place I never thought would feel like home

And I ran forever
Far away and I
I always thought I'd end up here alone

Somehow
The world has changed and
I've come home
To give you back the things they took from you

And I feel you now
I'm not alone I'll
Always know where you are
When I see myself I'll always Know where you are
Where you are

And I found something
That was always there
Sometimes it's got to hurt before you feel

But now I'm strong and
I won't kneel
Except to thank who's watching over me

Somehow
I feel so strong and I've begun
To be the one I never thought I'd be

And I feel you now
I'm not alone I'll
Always know where you are
When I see myself I'll
Always know where you are
Where you are

Now, it's all so clear and
I believe

That everything's been opened up to me
And I feel you now
I'm not alone
I always know
I always know where you are

When I see myself I'll
Always know where you are
When I feel the sun I'll
Always know where you are
When I see myself I'll
Where you are.
