Melody:

Ok, get a grip, get the hang of this flipper
it's like slipping two feet into one big, huge slipper.
This way left, but which is right?
Well now I'll be circling in circles all night.

(Oh, so this is forward? No problem)

I can't believe I can do this and more,
to swim in the sea like I walk on the shore.
Out of my shell, not closed up like a clam.
Look out sea,
this is me,
here I am!

For a moment all of me
is alive and at home in the sea.
I'm swirling and twirling so graceful and grand,
not stubbing my toes, getting stuck in the sand.

For a moment life is cool
I'm splashing in the world's biggest pool.
This is more than my thoughts ever thought it could be.
For a moment, just a moment, lucky me.

Ariel:
If only for one moment
I had shared with you all I know.
The sea wouldn't be a mystery.
Oh why did you have to go?

Melody:
Everything's newer and brighter and bluer
and truer to life than before watch me soar!

For a moment I can shine got a grin and a fin that works fine.
My fingers are wrinkly and I really don't care

if all the curls have curled out of my hair.

For a moment I can feel all the dreams I've been dreaming are real.
Wish my mother could hear it
the sea is my song.
For a moment, just a moment I belong.

Ariel:
I will find you, my darling.
And the moment that I do
I'll hold you close, my Melody and sing the song of the sea with you.
Sing the song of the sea with you.

Melody:
For a moment, just a moment
I belong
